ALAN SIMMONS Music

Choral Catalogue 2016

Alan Simmons Music has been publishing choral music for male, female and mixed voice choirs for over 25 years. Alan is an experienced music adviser, musical director or chorus master. His work has been with children, male, female and mixed voice choirs and performers such as Cleo Laine, Howard Keel and Roger Whittaker. He is also founder of The Mastersingers, who perform regularly on the BBC. Alan Simmons now devotes his time to being a full time composer in France, where he runs a successful mixed voice choir and music festival. His family run the publishing business.

Our composers/arrangers

The majority of our music is composed or arranged by Alan himself, however, over the years, he has come across music that he really would like to see available to choirs. Therefore, there are a number of other people listed in the catalogue. All tried and tested. All work wonderfully for their setting.

Explanation of our difficulty ratings

• Very Easy: Works in up to 4 parts containing simple rhythms and harmonies, often with supportive keyboard accompaniments. Ideal for choirs with limited reading ability.

•• Easy: Works in up to 4 parts, mostly with easy rhythms and harmonies and helpful keyboard accompaniments.

••• Capable: Still in up to 4 parts, but containing some challenging passages, with or without accompaniment.

Require some basic reading skills.

•••• Skilled: Works in any scoring, with or without accompaniment, containing some challenging passages. Require solid reading skills.

•••• Advanced: Aimed at selective and professional choirs, these works are both technically and musically challenging.

MUSIC FOR MALE VOICES (TTBB)

We're very proud of our Male Voice Catalogue. In fact, it's one of the most comprehensive and varied catalogues you will find. This is because Alan has a long history of conducting, advising and adjudicating Male Voice Choirs. If you see a piece in our catalogue that isn't arranged for Male voices and you think it should be, please get in touch - it might just be possible!

MUSIC FOR FEMALE VOICES - SSA(A)

Although not quite as comprehensive as our other catalogues, we still have a large number of pieces for female voices - and the list is growing. In fact, we are committed to expanding our number of titles - so if you see a piece in another voice that you would like to sing, let us know.

MUSIC FOR MIXED VOICES - SATB/SAB

Alan still conducts a mixed voice choir, so this is a list that grows regularly (as he decides to write new pieces for them). Our mixed voice repertoire has both SATB and SAB arrangements. Both are covered in the list below, but indexed separately in the full listing.

The Beauchamp Gloria

Written for St Mary's Church, Warwick, this Gloria sets adult and children's choirs on an equal footing. The traditional Latin text is sung by the adults, but the children continually question them with their English text. The work was based on the relationship between Sir Richard Beauchamp. 13th Earl of Warwick, and his prisoner. Joan of Arc.

Scored for: Three choirs (SATB1, SATB2 and a children's choir in unison and 2 parts, or children's choir and 1 adult choir with semi-chorus), brass ensemble, percussion and organ.

Duration: 18 minutes.

These pieces have a range of accompaniment, from percussion or full orchestra. We have packaged them to be more accessible. The full score and accompanying parts are available at a single price to download and print. The children's choir is also a single price. The choir parts can be bought per choir member. Of course, they can be performed simply by an SATB choir with piano accompaniment. But if you have the opportunity (and the people) try the downloadable, full performance packs - they really are worth it.

They Don't Write 'Em Like That Any More

Inspired by the great age of swing this was written for Alan's second wife, Eileen. It looks back 'They don't write 'em like that' it tells us, quoting references from the musical past. By the end, however, there comes a realisation that maybe they do!

Together We Can Work Miracles

Every choir should sing this piece! Why? Because it perfectly sums up the role of a choir. It celebrates support, strength and collaboration when we work together. It is a joyous song that starts simply and builds together to a rousing finish.

Travel in Style

Remember when roads weren't clogged with traffic? Travel in Style does. This amusing look at travel, from the days before speed cameras, parking fines and congestion. A well written piece, it ebbs and flows with the story, a truly enjoyable piece.

Whenever I'm Here with You

Written in a swing-style this is the ultimate love song. Clever lyrics and a playful interaction between the parts - it's important to concentrate on timing. But it is worth it, there's a twist at the end that makes it the perfect concert piece!

GOOD FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS SINGING TOGETHER:

In addition to the large choral works on page 6, these single songs can work as part of a concert when children and adult choirs sing together.

Roads

Inspired by a poem by Robert Frost about 'The Road Less Travelled'. A folk Seekers style song. Which road to choose? Scored for Male, Female, Mixed Voice & Children's Choirs. See Page 32 for more details.

They Don't Write 'Em Like That Any More

Inspired by the great age of swing this was written for Alan's second wife, Eileen. It looks back 'They don't write 'em like that' it tells us, quoting references from the musical past. By the end, however, there comes a realisation that maybe they do! Scored for Male, Female, Mixed Voice (SATB and SAB) & Children's Choirs. See Page 33 for more details.

Away in a Manger

If you are looking for a perfect, hushed mood at start your Christmas concert, then this certainly will not disappoint. An alternative melody with delicate harmonies that are simply beautiful. Gentle, piano accompaniment rocks the cradle. Scored for Male, Female, Mixed Voice (SATB and SAB) & Children's Choirs. See Page 7 for more details.

Infant Holy

This is based on a traditional Polish Christmas carol. For those who are looking for something a little different, this alternative melody for these traditional words is a gentle lullaby that offers lovely harmonies.

Scored for Male, Female, Mixed Voice (SATB and SAB) & Children's Choirs. See Page 9 for more details.

COMPETITION PIECES

A good competition piece has the right amount of challenge and interest for your choir. The following pieces are just a small selection of the pieces from our catalogue that fit this criteria.

Wind of Change

A thrilling song with a driving rhythm and a swing beat. Designed to challenge the musical style of the choir, it provocatively asks us to go forwards bravely. Both challenging and exciting for your choir. See Page 33 for more details.

Sing Agreeably

From a beautifully haunting start, this setting of WH Auden's words is a strikingly atmospheric piece. Through slow incantation and ever-shifting tones and textures, this creates and incredibly evocative piece of music. See Page 32 for details.

Sing for your Life

Starting with an agitated, hectic style and rhythm, this will really challenge your choir. It builds and builds, then switches to a laid back blues style. The challenge is to take a break from the computer and mobile phone. And do what? Well Sing for Our Life of course. It will strike a nerve with people in the choir - especially the ones that rush in late to practice, after a hectic day! See Page 32 for more details.

Blow, Blow thou Winter Wind

A biting setting of Shakespeare's words. Written as a challenge for male voices with compound rhythms and slightly more challenging harmony. But get your teeth into it and you'll really benefit. See Page 28 for more details.

Seven Ages of Song

This is an amazing look at the seven ages of man through song. It moves from the cradle to the... enjoyable maturity! Different from anything else you've heard. Written for Peter Davies and the Cornwall International Male Voice Festival. See Page 32 for more details.

Psalm 100 - Make a Joyful Noise

Psalm 100 is a challenging, but ultimately rewarding piece of music. 'Make a joyful noise, unto the Lord all ye lands" Perfect for challenging your choir (and an excellent competition piece). As with all pieces by Alan Woods, it is beautifully and thoughtfully written. If your choir are asking for a challenge, try this. We guarantee you won't be disappointed — and your audiences will appreciate it. See Page 31 for more details.

Psalm 67 - Let the Nations Rejoice & Be Glad

Written for his wife, Elizabeth, and first performed at their wedding. "May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face shine on us, so that your ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations." See Page 31 for more details.
